THE RICHMOND CAPITOL FIGHT--COMMITTEE REPORT.

The Pope and Divorces---Accident to the Royalty---Midnight Dispatches.

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 16.—The committee of House Delegates, charged with the investigation of the recent affray in the rotunda between W. W. Archer and C. N. Harrison, newspaper reporters, and James A. Frazier, the delegate from Rockbridge, have made their report, recommending the expulsion of the two former from the floor of the House during the further sessions of that body. The committee rebukes the bad taste and impropriety of Mr. Frazier's criticism of the fellow-member in a public newspaper and in unparliamentary language, but recommends that he be released from arrest and restored to his privileges as a member of the committee.

Another report was submitted, setting forth that Police Justice Crutchfield had been guilty of contempt of authority of the House, in refusing to give up the parties to this affray when called for by the House, and in saying that the "machine"—meaning the House delegates—should not run his court; and that every damned one should go to jail. Upon recommendation of the committee process was served upon Crutchfield, and further proceedings postponed until to-morrow.

The Pope and Divorces.

ROME, Feb. 16.—It is stated that the Pope will to day issue an encyclical letter condemnatory of the divorce.

That Bridge.

PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.—The bridge over Meherrin river, on the Petersburg & Weldon Railroad at Hicksville, Va., which was destroyed by fire on the night of the 9th inst., has been replaced by a temporary trestle, and trains will pass through on time to-day.

To Go Free.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 16.—The House committee on Naval Affairs to-day agreed to ask the suspension of rules for the passage of a resolution permitting the Secretary of State to employ a Government vessel for transporting the contributions to relieve the suffering poor of Ireland.

Saved the Chest.

MADRID, Feb. 16.—A railway train in Andalusia bound for Madrid, and carrying the government treasure chest under charge of five gendarmes, was stopped yesterday (Sunday) by sixteen brigands between Alcacara and Arganiasillie. Marshal Serano, who happened to be a passenger on the train, took commmand of the gendarmes and fired on the bandits, who fled. One of the gendarmes was wounded.

Accident to Royalty.

OTTAWA, Feb. 16.—A covered sleigh in which Her Royal Highness and His Excellency, attended by Colonel McNeil and Hon. Mrs. Laugham, were going to the Senate Chamber Saturday night, was upset and dragged about four hundred yards. The Princess received a severe contusion on the head, and had part of the right ear cut. Mrs. Laugham was much bruised on the arm and His Excellency was slightly hurt on the forehead.

Foreign Flashes.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The Daily News owns that the Southwark election was unmistakably a Liberal defeat.

The Times says the returns of the Conservatives from Southwork is a heavy blow for the opposition. The government is justified in regarding the battle so keenly fought, as a vote of confidence, more decided and incontestible than that at Liverpool.

A Dublin dispatch reports the general condition of Ireland as improving, although severe distress is still felt in many places.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—A London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says a serious complication has arisen between England and Persia, touching the Herat negotiations, that they have not been completely suspended, but have failed for the moment.

The same correspondent says he is able to state, on the highest authority, that there is no truth in the persistent reports that the baronness Burdette Coutts has given 500,000 pounds for the relief of the Irish distress.

Experts estimate the loss of the farmers in the United Kingdom during the year 1879 at from one hundred to one hundred and fifty million pounds.

That Canal.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—A Herald special dated Aspinwall, February 14th, says the engineers employed by M. Ferdinand de Lesseps in the task of surveying the Site of the proposed canal and in estimating the probable cost of it, to-day issued their report. They unanimously favor a level canal and estimate the cost at 843 million francs. M. de Lesseps will now publish a circular inviting the American subscriptions to the value of half that amount. The work is to occupy eight years in accomplishment. The falls are calculated at 15 francs per ton.

What Spurgeon Says About It.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Charles Spurgeon an eminent Baptist Divine, preaching at the Metropolitan Tabernacle yesterday for the first time since his return from Mentone Italy, said that Englands rulers were making bloody wars and oppressing nations. That they encouraged and consoled themselves with reflection. We are a great people and by jingo do what we like. It will all come right in the end, but they should remember that pride went before a fall the proudest and haughtiest of men and nations would yet be brought low. God's chastisements when they did come would be terrible even unto destraction.

The Fire Record.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—A destructive fire occurred last night in the Empire Warehouse building, used as a storehouse for dry goods, liquors and bonded goods. The loss is estimated as follows: Wallace & Kingmen, $150,000; Chapin & Gore, liquors, $150,000; Field, Lester & Co., dry goods, $200,000; J. V. Farwell & Co., dry goods, 75,000; Wilson Bros. 15,000, and a number of smaller losses of insurance on goods not known, but thought to cover the loss for the most part.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—A fire broke out yesterday in the first floor of No. 115 Maiden Lane, occupied by C. N. Finch & Co, dealers in heavy oils and chemicals. Owing to the combustible nature of its contents it quickly made its way throughout the building and extended into No. 117 adjoining, occupied by Lichtenstein Bros., dealers in leaf tobacco, which was also burned, with large losses. In No. 117 was J. T. Wells, whose eccentricities as dealer in panama had gained him notoriety, said he had sixty cases of panama hats worth $17,000, stored in the building destroyed. Buildings Nos. 115 and 117 were damaged $15,000. The total loss is about $91,000.

Railroad Combination.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—A special from Louisville says a combination has been formed between the Louisville and Nashville and Georgia Central railroads to last for five years. This will give the Louisville and Nashville company control of every port on the South Atlantic coast except Brunswick, Ga.

At Savannah the railroad will connect with lines of steamers to New York and Liverpool. It is intended to compete with the northern trunk lines in carrying freight from western cities to New York. Through bills of lading will be issued to all points. Several thousand men are at work in the Louisville and Nashville company's shops or rolling stock, and Mr. Wadleigh of the Georga Central is now in New York purchasing steamships for this line.

Indian Affairs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 16.—A Jackson dispatch says that on the 10th Captain Rucker of the Ninth Cavalry, after following the Indians for two days with his entire command, in the direction of San Andreas, came suddenly upon them, strongly fortified in the narrow, rough canajou. The troops received them with a heavy fire, and several men and horses fell. The Indians charged the troops, who gave way and retreated to Pell Mell. The Indians drove them across the river, abandoning their rations and bedding, which were secured by the Indians.

From the Signal Office.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The following dispatch has been sent by the Chief Signal Officer to observers at the river stations south of Louisville: The river at Cincinnati is fifty-two and a half feet above low water mark, and rising At Louisville it is twenty-seven above and rising; and at Nashville forty-three feet four inches above last falling.

Denver Working Men.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 16.—The city is at present undergoing the first labor agitation of its history. A general feeling of discontent is manifested among the laboring men and others for several months past, and the working classes have been gradually forming unions until now 21 organizations have been perfected. They comprise printers, carpenters, plumbers, brick and stone masons, plasterers, cigar makers, barbers, cooks, waiters, locomotive engineers and firemen, blacksmiths, etc. All the different unions held a mass convention last Saturday night, and took steps to organize a trader's assembly, which, it is claimed, will constitute a voting strength of 1,900. The meeting was enthusiastic and orderly. It was addressed by Brick Pomeroy and others. Among other schemes that the workingmen have on foot, is that of starting an afternoon paper.

A Marriage That will Cause Trouble.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 16.—Sidney Shores, a well-to-do farmer of Somerset county, who recently married his twelve-year old step-daughter, has been arrested, and also the officiating clergyman, Zachariah Brown, on charge of violating State law, which prohibits man from marrying his step-daughter or woman her step-father, under penalty of $500 fine. Clergymen are also made amenable to the same law. Shores furnished bail in the sum of $3000 for each of the accused to await the action of the grand jury of the county. The case has excited extraordinary interest and much indignation among the neighbors.

John Sherman's Change of Mind.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—John Sherman, before the House Committee on Ways and Means, this morning, gave his views at length upon the refunding question. While advocating in general terms the adoption of a 4 per cent. bond, he thought some modifications as to time and interest might be made. He admitted that his views had modified somewhat, and he was disposed to concede the possibility of negotiating at par a bond bearing a lower rate of interest than 4 per cent. The Committee will take a final action to-morrow on the question of refunding.

Beecher on Candidates.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The Lincoln Club celebrated Lincoln's birthday with a dinner this evening. Henry Ward Beecher replied to the toast of "Our Country,'". He said he was in favor of Grant, not only for a third term, but for a fourth term, if the people wished it. He did not believe in going into the election handicapped, but he did not think the country would be lost if Grant was not nominated. He would vote for Mr. Bayard first of all the opposition candidates. He thought Blaine would make a good show in the canvass and would have to learn the business after he got in. As for Sherman, he would make a good candidate if he would only run well. He thought that John Sherman would adorn private life immensely. Hayes, he continued, has been a success because he has done nothing, exactly as some men are least dangerous when they are asleep. Edwards Pierrepont, replying to the toast of "General Grant," said that women have always adored two classes of men—those that kill the body and those that cure the soul—soldiers and ministers. Mr. Beecher retired at this point.

Waterspouts on Long Island Sound.

Wilbur Hammond and Dr. J. Mears, of Greenport, L. I., describe an extraordinary phenomenon which they witnessed while on the Sound shore, opposite that village, on a recent afternoon. Their attention was attracted by what seemed to be an unusual disturbance on the surface of the water, directly under a heavy cloud coming from windward, the wind blowing heavily from the northwest and a heavy surf rolling. The tops of the waves assumed the spirally ascending motion peculiar to waterspouts, which increased until the elevation was upward of fifty feet before the water took the cloud form. This was soon followed by a second, about a mile off shore, similar to the first, but considerably larger, its height, judging from the angle of elevation, being nearly a thousand feet. The top of this also resolved into a fog of mist directly under the cloud. Then, at a distance of about four miles, a third one was plainly discernable, which seemed to meet the sky at the rear of the cloud, and which must have covered an area of several acres. All three of these spouts were moving with the wind, and the first or smallest one subsided to the water level only a few rods from the beach. Immediately there was a sharp dash of rain, followed by a hail squall, as the disturbing cloud passed over, and when this subsided, so that a view of the Sound could again be obtained, the waterspouts had disappeared. So far as known, these were the only water spouts ever seen in the Sound.

A "Still" Voice.

Washington Star.

A prominent lawyer of this city is responsible for the story that after the result of the recent Republican Convention in this District was made known to Col. Bob Ingersoll, he was asked by a friend if his voice was still for suffrage here. "Yes," the Colonel replied, "damned still."

FLOWERY FLORIDA.

PONCE DE LEON AND HIS FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH.

Fort San Marco and Its Ghastly Skeletons--Another Article From Our Correspondent.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 13 '80.

Leaving Palatka we steamed up the St. John's 25 miles, until opposite Welacca, when our boat suddenly turned to the right and we glided into the Ocklawoka. This is a narrow winding stream through a dense swamp of semi-tropical vegetation, with frequently just width enough for our boat to graze either bank, and up which we must go for over 100 miles to our destination, the famous "Fountain of Youth," which Ponce De Leon so strenuously sought. Gen. Grant and party went up the Ocklawoka last month; one of the Vanderbilts and party made the trip this week, and it is considered au negle for every visitor to this part of Florida to make a trip up this now famous river. All day long the constant pop of fire-arms from the forward deck told us of the presence of huge alligators which lay basking in the sun. When night came on a huge fire of light wood knots was built upon the top of the pilot house, and with its lurid rays lighted up with a weird unearthly brilliance the impenetrable gloom of the primeval forest. It is rarely that it is given to mortals to see a more unearthly sight than the one we witnessed in the passage of two steamers at midnight, on these dark and gloomy waters. We were painfully laboring our way up stream, with the fires on our pilot house, rendering the darkness before, behind and around us, more than awful, when suddenly the startled air caught a wild, demoniatic shriek; our engine stopped throbbing, and with a half-answering howl our boat crushed into the bank among the water lilies, securing to avoid the coming monster.

Suddenly from out the darkness, around a bend which seemed to open a few yards a head of us, it swung with a rush into view. With lightwood fagots piled high on its pilot house—its furnaces glowing, nothing was seen except dark figures stirring up the fires. Our trembling boat seemed to hug the shore more closely and on the monster came with breath all flame and nostrils all fire. With shriek and roar and rush it passed us, then another shriek and roar and the hurrying phantom disappeared into utter darkness as suddenly as he had emerged. Could some old medieval monks have witnessed that midnight scene with its funeral surroundings nought could have pursuaded them that two fierce monsters of horrible shape had not come up from the nethermost regions to do each other battle there.

Just at daylight we turned out of the Ocklawaha into Silver Springs Run. Not greater is the change above us from night into day, than was the instant change beneath us from the black waters of the Ocklawaha into the clear crystal of Silver Springs Run. This Run is sixty feet wide and from ten to twenty feet deep and so marvelously clear is it that every object in its waters can be clearly seen, the fish, the pebbles, the sand on its bottom. The vessel seems suspended in mid air and to be moving between two stratas of air. We pass up this river for nine miles and then debauch into a little lake covering five or six acres and there the river ends. No external streamlet or spring supplies it, but take a little boat and float around the lake with us. It is 60 to 80 feet deep and yet every little pebble and stone on its bottom can be distinctly seen, varied with a thousand prismatic reflections. A five cent piece it is said, can be distictly seen. The explanation of a portion of this strange phenomenon is that a subterranean river here emerges to the surface. At a point near the middle of the lake we saw the mouth of this subterranean river and the boiling up is so strong that iron or stone attempted to be let down into it is utterly swept aside.

The water of the lake is tepid. It is said that this wonderful lake is the "Fountain of Youth" that Ponce de Leon, misled by an inaccurate knowledge of the Indian language and his own imagination, sought so persistently. He was one of the old comrades of Columbus and already an old man when in 1512 he landed on the present site of St. Augustine (being the first landing of Europeans in the limits of the United States and nearly 100 years before Captain John Smith landed at Jamestown) in his mad search for the fountain that would restore youth. He returned no younger than he came. From Silver Springs a horse railroad runs out to Ocola, six miles distant. In 1539 the brilliant Hernando de Soto, the lieutenant of Pizarro in his conquest of the empire of the Incas, from which he had returned with vast riches, landed at Tampa Bay. He sought no chimerical fountain of youth, but was engaged in the equally vain attempt to rival Cortez and Pizarro by the discovery and plunder of an empire. Near this very Ocala he first came in armed contact with the Indians and the ancestors of Osceola there well proved their claim to manhood. Disappointed in what he sought on these shores, De Soto turned like a devastating tornado westward and sweeping a wide swath of destruction, crossed the Mississippi and penetrated to where now lies the western border of Arkansas. Seeing his dreams of conquest and fame dissolve, De Soto did not survive his ambition and died as his returning army reached the Mississippi. His soldiers buried him in waters of the mighty river, and the place of his sepulcher, like that of a greater, "no man knoweth to this day." A fine historical painting in the rotunda of the Capitol at Washington commemmorates the burial of this brave Spaniard who came to seek an empire and found a grave instead.

Oklawaha means "crooked water," and well it deserves its name. Down its devious windings we found our way to Palatka. At Palatka we had a fine exhibition by the now famous Capt. Paul Boyton of his agnatic feats. They are very interesting, but have been too often described in the papers to bear a recital here. The natives of Florida bear a small proportion to the new-comers, which is a sign that this long-neglected State is beginning to settle up. As a test of civilization, we tried but could never find a native Floridian who had seen or heard of Pinafore—well, that is, hardly ever. Their principal crops in this part of the State are oranges and sea island cotton. The latter brings 36 cents per pound. The whole State is flat, and very little above sea level. So much so is this the case that an elevation 80 feet high near Palatka is known far and wide as "the mountain." Shad are plentiful on the tables. They commence to run here in November.

Passing down the St. Johns 40 miles we reach Tocoi, and taking the Railroad there—a run of 15 miles across the burnt sand between the St. Johns and the Ocean—brought us to the town of St. Augustine, the oldest European settlement in the United States. Ponce de Leon, as I have said, landed here in 1512. In 1520 the Fort San Marco (now Fort Marion) was begun, though not finished till 1756. The town was first settled in 1565, and in 1586 was captured and burnt by Sir Francis Drake. A little later it was burnt by the buccaneers. It became English in 1763 in exchange for Havana, and on the Plaza here in 1775 Hancock and Adams were burnt in effigy. In 1781 it was restored to Spain, and in 1819 the territory of Florida was ceded to the United States. It is an ancient looking town, and with its narrow streets seems more like a bit of the old world than the new. The next oldest settlement in the present limits of the United States was, I believe, old Mission Dolores, on the hills just back of San Francisco, a spot which the writer visited in 1871, and looked down on San Francisco and its lovely bay, with the flag floating from rocky Alcotraz, the Gibraltar of the West, and with the "Golden Gate" swinging wide open to the commerce of the East, a never-to-be forgotten scene. The third settlement was Capt. John Smith, at Jamestown, the fourth. I think, was the Spaniard again at San Antonio, in Texas, early in 1620, and the fifth the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock in December of that year. The Spaniard preceded the Anglo Saxon a full century on this continent, but whey are they, and where are we? Florida, by the way, does not receive its name from its flowers, as commonly supposed, but from the accidental circumstance that when Ponce de Leon landed on the spot, where we now are, in 1512 it was on Palm-Sunday which in the language of the Catholic Church is Pascua de Florida. Just so, Vassa da Gama, a few years before that, sighting new land on the S. E. shore of Africa on Christmas day called it Natal, a name which it bears till now and which recent events have made prominent.

We visited to-day the Fort and saw in the keystone of the gateway, the coat of arms of Castile and Leon, where it was placed by its builders two centuries ago.

We also saw the casements in which Osceola was for a while confined, and the narraw grating turough which one of his chiefs escaped. In one of the casements a few years since a sudden giving away of the stone flooring revealed a lower dungeon in which were two iron cages, and in which were the skeletons, still manacled, of men who, for some unknown cause, had been placed alive therein by the Spaniards of old and then walled up in that unknown tomb.

We also visted the city gates still standing, and saw a portion of the old city walls still standing, for St. Augustine was a "walled town," strange as it sounds.

In the cemetery are the three mounds covering the remains of the officers and soldiers who fell in "Dade's Massacre" in the Seminole war.

We of course attended Mass in the old Cathedral with its quaint chime of bells. The oldest bell bares the date of 1682 and the tower is of the Moorish order of architecture.

As to the lovely climate of St. Augustine, who is it that can give an idea of it? Z.

PREFERS TO KEEP SILENCE.

Secretary Sherman Refuses to Notice Charges Made Against Him Concerning North Carolina Politics.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 11.—Secretary Sherman treats with scorn the malicious charges against him concerning North Carolina politics published by the New York Times. He refuses to take any public notice of them, or to make any answer to them. He could brush them all aside and expose the lying conspiracy of the politicians who are opposing him if he chose to do so, but he prefers to keep silence and let the charges of Keogh and his crowd react upon themselves.

From other sources I learn that the publication inspired by Keogh in the Times is susceptible of the most complete refutation. It appears that Keogh, the late chairman of the State committee, had undertaken and freely promised that he would secure the delegation to Chicago from that State for Grant, and that when he found that he was himself set aside, and that he could not hand the delegation over to Grant as he had promised, he resolved to be revenged upon Sherman. He is himself a correspondent of the New York Times in North Carolina, and is in the habit of furnishing material to that paper. He had a personal interview with Sherman in behalf of a discharged Federal office-holder named Powers, who was a mere carpet-bagger in North Carolina, and whose removal had been requested by the most prominent Republicans of the State. This interview was not sought by Secretary Sherman, as alleged, nor did he ever ask Keogh to support him or do anything for him, nor did he make any promises to give Powers another office. It would have been absurd for the Secretary to have sent for Keogh and begged his support, when everybody knew that he was an avowed Grant man. The true facts are all set forth in a statement made by Special Agent Kilpatrick, who is reported as having urged Keogh to visit Sherman and having gone to North Carolina in Sherman's interests. Kilpatrick's statement shows there is little truth in Keogh's assertions. They are wholly fictitious so far as they represent Secretary Sherman as making efforts, directly or through agents or officers of the Treasury, to secure delegates to Chicago from the Southern States.

The facts in regard to the purloining of the letter of Colonel Moulton to Secretary Sherman have leaked out to-day, and it turns out that the publication of the New York Times was a piece of malevolence on the part of Keogh, of North Carolina. It seems that Secretary Sherman received Col. Moulton's note at his office in the Treasury department, and laid it on his table in front of him. Soon afterward a drunken North Carolinian, who had been discharged from the government employ on account of his bad character, called with some papers, asking that he be reinstated. The papers were laid on the Secretary's desk for a few minutes. Mr. Sherman told him that his case was so bad that it was useless to ask for reinstatement. The man, whose name was Turner, then picked up his papers and departed. It seemed that he picked up this Moulton letter also and carried it off. He returned it next day to one of the Treasury department messengers, saying that no one had seen it. This was a lie, as he had taken a copy and given it to Keogh, who secured its publication, which was under the circumstances, a verty dirty pieces of business.

A Great Chance for Tilden.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (Rep.)

If Mr. Tilden wants to make a brilliant strike for the capture of Tammany, let him cover Bennett's check for $100,000 with a check for a like amount for the Irish Relief Fund. Kelly would have to quit fighting him after that. He could easily reimburse himself out of the first railroad suit entrusted to him.

Will Lose his Money.

If Grant is nominated, the man who bets on his receiving a percentible number of Democratic votes will lose money.

PATCHING A PEACE.

BOTH IN RAILROADS AND IN POLITICS.

Newcomb's Southern Soothing Syrup ---The Boys in Washington--- Things in General.

Bill Arp to the Constitution.

The railroad boom seems to have come back to you of its own accord and it is a good deal bigger than it was before. In fact it is the biggest thing I ever heard of for it has swallowed up all the roads and is going to make oceans of money for the stockholders It looks like some folks believe it for I see the stock in these consolidated lines is going up by the jump. But great expectations are hardly ever realized. If these roads are going to make more money by the combination they will have to put up freights to do it. They can't be run any cheaper than they were before, and I reckon our roads would have gotten as much to carry to the seaboard without the combination as with it. Therefore I don't see very clearly how this big thing is to benefit the people. What we want is competition—strong competition—for that keeps down the rates and prevents monopoly, and makes the kings and all the officers polite and amiable. Men are just human, you know, and when they get power and money and large patronage they become dictatorial and conceited in spite of themselves. I don't believe in such powerful monopolies as Tom Scott's, and Garret's, and Vanderbilt's, and Jay Gould and the Western Union telegraph company. They can buy up legislatures and lawyers and judges, and juries, and a common man don't stand any chance at all when he runs up against them. May be Captain Elliott would dare to suit one of em if they put him off the train, but I don't know anybody else that would. The captain would sue anything that trod on his toes. He'd sue General Grant or the emperor of Russia, or the Suez canal, or the Stone mountain as quick as he'd sue anybody, and the bigger the game the better he likes it. He never gets tired. Fourteen years ago he begun on a man in Rome, and followed him to Cherokee county, Alabama, and from there to Mobile, and he's following him yet.

But still I am glad Mr. Newcomb has managed to satisfy you and all our railroad people in Georgia, and I am not going to interfere with any of his arrangements, for I do like to see our folks at peace with one another. Peace is a blessed thing, and I was ruminating on that when I read that General Gordon and Mr. Stephens and all of our boys at Washington had harmonized. I like to see that—brethren dwelling together in unity and all working harmoniously for the good of our State. The only question is whether its sure enough peace or a sort of a flag of truce business and a renewal of hostilities at some future day. General Gordon wants peace I know, for he is a brave and noble man—warm hearted, generous and forgiving, but to my opinion he will not get peace, except on paper. He has committed the unpardonable sin—gotten in the way of those who thought they were better men. His conduct and heroism in the late war was in unpleasant contrast. Envy marked him for its arrows, and the envious will continue to shoot at him. Beloved at home, honored and respected abroad, there are, nevertheless, a few who feed their own vanity and conceit by whispering small slanders to his hurt.

"An eagle soaring in the air,
Was by a mousing owl hawked at and killed."

But they will not kill him. As long as he lives the people of Gergia will delight to do him honor. He may not be grand like Webster, or eloquent like Clay, or profound like Calhoun, but a truer, purer patriot has not yet been born, and we need patriots more than politicians. The prospect is bright, however, that the general will outlive his enemies, and then perhaps we will have peace.

I'm bucking up to Speer now—I'm betting on him. If he has got the right spunk in him he will whip out Sherman, and that will do me good for a month. I don't care anything about his little brass-band bill—the fact is, I didn't see any harm in a little music on Sundays, for it has a cheering effect; and the boys are called out on dress parade to see if they have cleaned up all right and got on a clean shirt and their best clothes, and the music is a very little sin, if any, and I thought that it looked puritanical to be pressing such a bill; but still friend Speer had a right to put in the bill, and talk up for his peculiar contraband views, and Mr. Sherman insults his masters when he threatens to move the troops from Atlanta. Let him move 'em if he wants to. If the bill passes I reckon he can't move 'em to a place where the bill wont reach 'em. Speer don't represent that district nohow, and what does Mr. Sherman want to spite Atlanta for? I've got no use for those pompous military men. They are too bigoty. They are too uppity. They have had their own way so long they have no respect for the restraints of the law. I don't want one of them for president. I'm willing to take Judge Lochrane, but I won't take General Grant if I can help it. I wish they would put it in the constitution that no man who had been educated at West Point and had command of troops for ten years should be eligible for president. Ten years of that business swells up a man until he thinks he is running an unlimited monarchy on a limited scale, and if he was made president he would make himself a king if he wanted to, for he would have the army to back him. General Jackson put a judge in jail, and he cut up powerfully about the United States bank, and most people thought it was smart but it wasent. It wasent respectful to the civil law, and the civil law is our only salvation. General Toombs says so, and he knows. I would like to hear him talk about Sherman threatening to remove the troops from Atlanta. I reckon there never was a man who had greater respect for civil law and greater contempt for military law than Toombs. His views on these questions kept him in hot water all the time he was in the army. He didn't want to obey an order until the commanding general explained the reason of it, and if the reason didn't satisfy him he wouldn't obey it at all. General Lee said that the officers must go up by promotion, and Toombs said his should go up by election—that the boys might make a captain out of a high private if they wanted to, and so they got at log-rolling, but every time Toombs's boys got ready to elect an order would come to "march," and they never stopped anywhere long enough to hold an election. General Johnson sent him an order at Meadow bridge for his brigade wagons to haul rations, but Toombs said his quartermaster shouldent give up his wagons until he got back his receipt, and that was in Richmond. I am willing to risk Toombs for President. He would make a good one, and uphold the law and a terror to thieves and lobby men. He would make a good professor of habeas corpus at West Point, and I think they ought to have one there. Why a West Pointer don't know the meaning of them words nor even heard of the barons of King John at Runnymead. I'm going to ask General Young the next time I see him. I'll bet he says habeas corpus was the name of a celebrated race horse, and will tell all about his pedigree. Yours,

BILL ARP.

Progress of the Work on the Western North Carolina Railroad.

Asheville Citizen.

The work of grading the cut near Mr. W. P. Fortune's, has been completed, and we understand the track was on Monday completed to Swananoa postoffice, and will some time this week reach Gudger's Ford, six miles from Asheville. The road from the latter place to Asheville is generally in a passable condition, even in the worst season, and we may now say that the road has almost practically reached Asheville.

A NEW YORK ENOCH ARDEN.

How a Wanderer Returned After a Long Absence to Find His Wife Another's.

The little hamlet of Tuckahoe, on the Harlem Railroad, near New York city, has an Enoch Arden case in real earnest. John and Thomas Buston were cousins. Thomas married a rosy-cheeked girl that John had loved, and she bore him two children. John found another bride, who bore him four children before she died. Then Thomas disappeared and sent home reports that he was dead, which were believed. John married Thomas' widow, and they lived very happily together and had a child. A month ago she received a letter from her first husband insisting that she should join him and go to Canada, where he had been. Then he appeared in the village, to the surprise of all the inhabitants thereof, and with only slightly improved fortunes. Mrs. Burton discussed the strange situation with her new husband.

He wrote at once to his cousin and to Mrs. Burton's friends, explaining the cruelty it would be to him, if a separation should be insisted upon. Many letters passed between the parties The arguments that particularly moved the new husband came from her relatives, who insisted that she should return out of regard to her reputation. "Is your cousin a good man? Will he care for her well?" John Burton was asked yesterday. "Oh, yes, I think he will," was the reply. "If I had thought he wouldn't, I'd have stood out against her return a good deal longer than I did. I would do anything rather than see the least harm come to her. Through this whole matter nobody could point to the least thing against her conduct. She has tried only to do what was right, and that is what I have tried to do." Last Monday it was decided by them that she should go back to her first husband. That night John and she packed her things, and the next morning she bade him a farewall and set out on her journey with her baby in her arms. She is yet a young woman. Thomas Burton is 33 years old.

Of Course He Remembered It.

Atlanta Constitution.

A good story is told on one of our prominent capitalists. In the old days he was a poor boy and had to work for living while other boys were at school. When he came to man's estate, therefore, he found himself a trifle short in spelling. He was a clear-headed, brave-hearted man of business, however, and he and his partner built their business up to such proportions that they had to buy a fire-proof safe. One combination word furnished them with the safe was "boot." One of the partners set the safe while the other was at dinner. When the latter came in he tried to open the safe, but could do nothing with it. He turned to his partner and said:

"Are you sure you set this safe by the right word for the combination?"

"Yes, I am."

The partner tried again, but could do nothing with the safe. "Are you sure you used the right word?" he asked.

"Hang take it," said his now exasperated partner; "of course I am. I set it b-u-t-e—boot. I don't forget anything in an hour!"

DEAD AND ALIVE.

A Patient Survives a Broken Back with Half his Body Decomposed.

Philadelphia Record.

In the German hospital there lives a man named Laurence Burke, who three months ago sustained a fracture and complete separation of the spinal column, and now presents the anomaly of a living and sensible head and trunk attached to a dead and decomposing mass of flesh and bone. As Dr. Blummer, the resident physician at the hospital, states: "There is nothing extraordinary in the injuries of the man, but what is remarkable is his long survival after his backbone had been completely shattered in twain. It is indeed a rare occurrence of surprising vitality in man; for Burke's recovery is an impossibility, as the science of medicine or surgery contains nothing that will cure a broken back."

The patient was a teamster in the employ of Steel & Co., grain merchants, and on the 7th of November last was driving a load of grain through an archway of an outbuilding near the Green and Coates streets passenger railway depot at Fairmount avenue and Twenty-sixth street. At a glance he thought the entrance was high enough to admit him, but the ground within the shed became higher as he passed in. He was driving at a moderate rate of speed, and lowered his head too late, for his shoulders caught against a projecting abutment and he was thrown violently to the ground. Since then he has lain in the hospital with a broken back, and suffered indescribable pain. All below the point of fracture is completely dead, and the first stages of mortification have set in.

Burke has a fair appetite, but no control of the intestinal muscles, the intestines themselves being dead, and food and liquid pass involuntarily from him. No sensation is experienced at all by the sufferer in exudation of food. He is able to snatch repose and slumbers without a groan. The hospital physician gives him a month to live.

Why Germany is Arming.

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—The semi-official North German Gazette, referring to the warlike interpretation by French newspapers of the German Army bill, says:

The French army estimates for 1870 were barely 500,000,000 francs ($100,000,000), while they now exceed 900,000,000 francs (180,000,000). The French army is better armed and numerically stronger than the German army. The Russian army has also been considerably increased. From the language of some of the French Monarchical journals it would appear certain that if the parties they represent obtained power they would immediately plunge France into war.

In view of this danger Germany, though earnestly peace-loving, must, for her own safety, follow the example unfortunately set by her neighbors in their immense armaments. Germany's army is her weapon of defense and not of attack. We would be very glad if the same could be said with certainty of the armies of our neighbors.

CONGRESS CACKLE.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46TH CONGRESS.

Marshall's and Supervisors at the polls--Tobacco for the Army--Convicts as Laborers---Lotteries.

HOUSE.

Under the call of States in the House to-day 130 bills and resolutions were introduced, mostly of a private nature. Among those of public interest were the following: By Richardson, of South Carolina, directing the refunding to the several States of the amount of cotton tax paid by them in 1866, '67 and '68, the Supreme Court having decided it was illegally collected; said States to give a guarantee that the money be refunded to producers of the cotton or their heirs, or in case they cannot be found, to be devoted to the education of the most indigent citizens, irrespective of color.

By Mr. Johnson, of Virginia, a bill requiring the tobacco purchased for the use of the Navy to be manufactured during the months of June, July August and September, and passed upon by three experts appointed by the Secretary of the Navy.

By Mr. O'Connor, of South Carolina, a bill authorizing the Government survey for, and estimate of, the construction of a canal across the Charleston neck to connect the Cooper and Ashley rivers.

By Mr. Nichols, of Georgia, a bill appropriating five thousand dollars for the survey of the Canoochee river, with a view to its improvement.

By Mr. House, of Tennessee, a bill requesting the President to open negotiations with France, Spain, Austria and Italy for the removal of present restrictions on the importation of tobacco into those countries.

Among the bills introduced were the following:

By Mr. Persons, of Georgia, admitting free of duty machinery for manufacturing cotton factories.

By Mr. Richardson, of South Carolina, to return to producers of cotton the tax collected by the Government, and which has been declared by the Supreme Court to have been illegally collected.

Mr. House, of Tennessee, requesting the President to open negotiations with certain foreign governments relative to the importation of tobacco into their dominions.

Under a call of the States the following bills were introduced and referred, in addition to those noticed in the noon report.

By Mr. Johnston, of Virginia, a bill to regulate the modes of purchasing tobacco for the Navy.

By Mr. Huntoon, of Virginia, a bill to settle the unpaid claims of the line officers of the Revolutionary Army who served to the close of the war.

By Mr. Baker, of Indiana, a bill amending the statutes providing for the employment of convicts in certain manufactures.

By Mr. Frost, of Maryland, a bill to repeal certain sections of the Acts of 1871, and two relative to the use of marshals and supervisors at the polls.

By Mr. Davidson, of Florida, a bill to settle the accounts between the United States and Florida.

At the expiration of the morning hour the House took up and passed the Senate bill appropriating one thousand dollars to defray the expenses of the removal of the body of the late Major-General George Sykes from Ft. Brown, Texas, to West Point.

A number of bills were then reported from the committee on the District of Columbia.

Among the bills was one for the protection of the Potomac river fisheries, which was passed, and the bill prohibiting the publication of lottery schemes in the District of Columbia which, after some opposition, was by a vote of 99 to 84 ordered engrossed and read the third time.

The House then adjourned.

Irish Relief.

MOBILE, Feb. 16.—The Right Rev. Quinton, Bishop of Mobile, has issued a circular ordering collections to be taken up in the Churches of the Diocese for the relief of the distress in Ireland.

Looking Toward a Monarchy.

That devout and holy man, the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, has raised his clarion voice in favor of the third term and Gen. Grant. At a meeting of the Lincoln Club—a club that execrates the name of Lincoln—on Thursday evening, Mr. Beecher said:

"What we want in our Government is stability and continuity. It is a point of weakness that our President holds office only four years, and it occasions unnecessary disturbance of our affairs throughout the whole country."

Yes, Mr. Beecher, it may be unnecessary for those who prefer ease to freedom. But it was a kind of disturbance of which Washington, Jefferson, Madison, and Jackson thought favorably.

Mr. Beecher is a popular advocate of wonderful talent, but we hope to see the American people frown upon his atrocious political doctrines.

Where Rogues Fall Out.

Washington Post.

If there is ten per cent. of truth in what Grant organs say about Sherman, and the accusations hurled at Grant by journals in the Sherman interest, neither of these aspirants are fit to be named in connection with the presidential office. And we expect these journals, in their present wrathful mood, are getting nearer to a basis of fact than they are accustomed to in their normal frame of mind. Their reciprocal indictments give a fair insight into the true character of their party and its leaders.

A Down-town Merchant.

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homœopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and over come the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 17, 1880.

THE Philadelphia Press (Rep.) says one of the signs of the times worthy the attention of the Republican political leaders is the unanimous opposition of the Germans to the third term candidacy of General Grant." The Press adds: "If there were nothing else to offer against the third term candidacy of General Grant but the combined opposition of the Germans, it should be sufficient for shrewd leaders who consider expediency to call a halt upon it, for the Republican party cannot elect its Presidential candidate without the German vote. Large as it is, however, it is small as compared with the vote of our native-born citizens who are opposed to a third term project."

SINCE the enormous rise in the price of paper, many papers have raised their price. Below we give some of the prices of doily papers. The NEWS, it will be noticed, is the cheapest of them all:

Columbia Register, $9.
Charlotte Observer, $8.
Wilmington Star, $7.
Chicago Times, $14.
New Orleans Picayune, $12.
Augusta Chronicle, $10.
Atlanta Constitution, $10.
Nashville American, $10.
Macon Telegraph, $10.
Charleston News and Courier, $10.
Raleigh Observer, $6.
Raleigh NEWS, $5.

IN a review of the course of the markets since January 1st, the Tribune says the tendency has been toward lower prices for nearly all farm products except cheese and cotton, and for petroleum, but toward higher prices for cotton, manufactures of cotton, iron and its products, and cheese. No. 2 foundry iron has advanced from $33 50 to $38 50 per ton; steel rails of American make from $32 50 to $35 per ton, and of English make from $36 50 to $64, and iron rails from $58 to $65 per ton. The average advance in iron and the products of iron since January 1st has been about 14½ per cent., and since January, 1879, the advance has been about 135 per cent. for pig iron, 102 per cent. for steel rails and 91 per cent. for iron rails. During the past month, cotton printing cloth has also advanced about 13 per cent. The average advance of cheese in price has been 11½ per cent. On the other hand, butter has declined about 10 per cent.; eggs about 20 per cent.; hogs and bacon from 3 to 4 per cent.; corn 5½ per cent.; wheat about 8 per cent., and petroleum 7½ per cent. In the prices of coal, beef, tallow and land there has been no change of consebuence.

GEN. SHERMAN'S ATTACK ON BOYNTON.

Gen. Tecumseh Sherman needlessly and foolishly put himself in a false light by his initial step in the Boynton quarrel. The other day he gave to the agent of the Associated Press the following note:

"My private correspondence shows that some persons actually believe that Gen. H. V. Boynton, correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, has begun some sort of proceedings against me for slander in a civil or military court. So far as I know up to the present instant of time, he has done nothing of the kind except in the newspapers.

W. T. SHERMAN."

Gen. Boynton at once applied to the War Department to know whether it was true, that he had not begun any sort of proceedings except in the newspapers, and received this reply:

"WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, D. C., Feb. 10, 1880.

"Mr. H. V. Boynton—Sir: I am directed by the Secretary of War to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of this date, requesting that you be informed whether a charge, with specifications, preferred by you against Gen. W. T. Sherman, had been received in this office, and to reply thereto that the papers referred to were received by him on the 28th ult. Very respectfully your obedient servant,

THOMAS F. BARR,
Judge Advocate."

Gen. Sherman is here apparently contradicted point blank. But on re-examining his letter it will be seen that he hedged behind two phrases, the first, "so far as I know;" the second, "in a civil or military court." Strictly speaking, sending charges to the War Department is not a technical introduction of them to a military court, because it is the act that precedes the assembling of a court; and again, by taking great precautions not to inquire into the matter, Gen. Sherman may have remained officially without notice that the charges had been forwarded and received. But his language was likely to deceive those who are not aware that the Headquarters of the Army are not at the War Department, and that the two offices do not always communicate the news to each other.

Tecumseh Sherman's conduct looks foolish. Why did he not, before publishing his note, inquire whether Boynton's charges had reached Mr. Alex, Ramsey? Five minutes, five words, would have saved him from his present attitude. When a man writes to the public "so far as I know," he is bound to first know as far as he can. The promptness with which his opponent has already caused him to officially know more, looks ill for Tecumseh Sherman.

There is another point to observe. General Boynton's note is addressed to Mr. Ramsey himself; not without intent, apparently, it is answered, by "Thomas F. Barr, Judge Advocate." It is thus suggested that the charges of Boynton had already reached not only Mr. Ramsey, but an officer of the Judge Advocate's department. It is true that they have not been introduced into "a civil or military court," but they are obviously not confined to the newspapers.

For all that, Gen. Boynton is not likely to get a military court, and there is no good reason why he should. He has an adequate source of remedy in the civil courts for any wrong he may have suffered; and to these courts Gen. Sherman is exactly as responsible as anybody else. The offence charged against Sherman is not at all connected with his capacity as General of the Army, but with his capacity as a citizen. Should General Boynton prove in a civil court that he had suffered a wrong, and secure reparation, he might then send the court record to Mr. Ramsey, with a demand for a court martial. But the civil tribunals, when open to him, should be a citizen's first resort. Gen. Boynton began at the wrong end, and despite his adversary's blunder, is in the more awkward plight of the two.

An Important Personal Item.

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, O., went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly lingering in pain and anguish," he says, heard of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of his painful experience and astonishing cure, in a long letter to H. H. Warner & Co., which will be forwarded on application.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Cankers, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gualemen—I cannot refrain from ad ing my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have reindered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago, believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs —— of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numiors of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day. E. P. DAGGETT.

MILFORD, ME., June 10, 1878.

NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET,

Is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Dr ggists 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large box 8, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 3 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC ELECTRIC PLASTERS Pain and Weakness cannot exist if they are applied. They vitalize, strengthen and support Weak and Painful Parts; cure, Chronic Rheumatism and Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys; absorb Poisons from the Blood, and thus prevent Fever and Ague, Malarial and Contagious Diseases; stimulate the Stomach and Digestive Organ when placed over the pit of the stomach and prevent Dyspepsia, Bilious Colic Cramps, and Pains. fdeot-tf

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.

For the South Atlantic States, clear or fair weather, followed by increasing cloudiness. Easterly veering to warmer southerly winds, falling possibly preceded by stationery barometer in the southern part.

Index to New Advertisements.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——No old bonds.

——Spring-like weather.

——Not a marriage license.

——Revenue receipts, $911.49.

——Only three deaths last week.

——Rev. N. H. D. Wilson is in the city.

——The Churches were well filled Sunday.

——Go hear Bishop Lyman at Tucker Hall to-night.

——They had ice cream at the Yarboro Sunday.

——Col. Wharton J. Green is registered at the Yarboro.

——Only one trivial case at the Mayor's Court yesterday.

——Remember the festival at Metropolitan Hall to morrow night.

——All the sheriffs but two have made settlements with the Auditor.

——The Galley Slave is to be performed in Charlotte to-morrow night.

——Mr. Moore, one of the street hands, who was injured Saturday, is slowly improving.

——Regular meeting of Raleigh Chapter to-night at their lodge room. Installation of officers.

——Bishop Lyman delivers his lecture, "Mount Sinai and Jerusalem," at Tucker Hall to-night.

——Mr. James Doyle yesterday deposited $100 in the Raleigh National Bank for the famine fund.

——Young man, if it is 11 o'clock and she goes to the piano and plays a few bars of "The Sweet By and By," you may consider the seance over for the night.

——"Shall I hereafter darn your stockings?" is said to be the fashionable language for a young lady to use when making a leap year proposition.

——Aaron L Rhenstein, Wilmington; S. C. Blanchard, Richmond; and T J Magruder & Co., Baltimore; took out a drummers' license yesterday.

——Mr. Doyle will to-day sell two pigs. The sale will be given for the benefit of the Irish sufferers. They will be auctioned off in iront of the court house. The pigs were contributed by Mr, Edward Bledsoe.

——As the Okalona Maharajah would put it—
The ice crop
Is now
Being gathered, and
Cocktails
Will soon be ripe!

——The skating rink was booming again last night. A goodly crowd was present. Skating is a very healthful exercise. It not only puts in play all the muscles of the arms and legs, but it creates bumps on the head for future phrenologists to feel and report on.

——The following new names are on Mr. Doyle's list for to-day. He has collected in all to date $120.25.

Hon A S Merrimon, D G Fowle and J J Nowell $5 each; N J Riddick, H C Thompson, William Woolcott, Jordan Womble, S A Harrington and P F Pescud $1 each; J H Young 25c.

——There are some men so homely that pretty women fly to them and marry them for pity's sake. Why, a man may be so ugly that his face actually aches from pain caused by its terrible shape, and yet that man will become owner and proprietor of one of the sweetest little women in the world. We have several in our mind's eye just now.

——The entertainment to be given by the ladies of the Edenton Street Methodist church this week, begins on Wednesday night, instead of Thursday, as heretofore stated, and will be continued Thursday and Friday nights. The ladies have taken considerable pains to provide for each evening something that will furnish amusement for the spectators. On the first night will be rehearsed Jean Ingelow's "Songs of the Seven," which, of itself, will afford an evening's entertainment. But in addition to this they will have the "wise and foolish virgins," a pyramid of angels, music, &c. Of course, refreshments will be served. The object is a laudable one—to procure funds for the completion of the new and handsome Sunday-school hall which they are fitting up for their large and growing school. We sincerely hope our people will patronize them liberally. Admission only ten cents.

General J. B. Hood's Book.

This book, "Advance and Retreat," will have a good many readers throughout the South. It is now ready and Messrs. Alfred Williams & Co., are agents and will take your orders for the work, price $3.00.

Lincke's Hall and the Irish Sufferers.

The following communication explains itself:

Messrs. Doyle and McGowan:

GENTLEMEN—I take pleasure in tendering you the use of my hall for next Thursday night, February 19th, and hope that all who have a feeling of humanity in their breast will come and contribute their share to relieve the suffering of their fellowmen.

I am yours, gentlemen,
Very respectfully,
P. LINCKE

Raleigh, Feb. 17th, 1879.

Whose Baby?

Saturday night Capt. W. K. Davis, of this city, stopped over night with Mr. Kimbrough Jones, who resides about a mile and a half north of Raleigh. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the family heard the cries of an infant, seemingly in the front porch, and search proved this to be true. A girl baby, between two and three weeks old had been placed right in front of the door. The child was well dressed, is pretty, healthy looking, and was taken in, of course. They turned it over to a colored woman on the premises. Sunday Capt. Davis came to Raleigh and got an order from Register White to have the babe turned over to the keeper of the poor house, where it was yesterday taken. No one seemed to want the little foundling. Captain D. says he has got none of his own, and that he don't want to take care of other people's. Besides the Captain has no particular love for squalling babies anyway.

The funniest part of this business remains to be yet told.

As before stated, the child was well and comfortably dressed. Whoever left it was careful to see that no harm came to it. It is thought they even watched till the child was taken in. To resume, the child was supplied with every necessary article of clothing. It even had a handkerchief, and thereby hangs the tale—the name of a gentleman is marked thereon! This handkerchief may yet lead to "developements."

A Cow Story.

Fred. Olds, of our neighbor, the Observer, is responsible for a cow story which we hope is correct. We intend to induce those bag pipes and the fiends who blow them to take a trip to Deadwood.

As they leave the city they will strike up one of their best and most attractive cow tunes. These cows that have such a high appreciation of music will follow them, and thus we will get rid of two nuisances at once. That is our reason for saying we hope the following from Olds is true. Here is what he says:

"Cows undoubtedly have a taste for music. The correctness of the taste may be doubted. It was noticed yesterday that about a dozen of these street wanderers followed the bagpipe player around, and whenever he produced his sweet discord, would stop with necks outstretched, drinking in every note of the music."

They are expected to reach Deadwood before the instruments "play out," and in time to give Pat. Donan, of the Pioneer, a lively and melodious serenade. The music will be "interspersed" with some pretly high lowers from the immigrant cows.

Superior Court.

This Court met again yesterday morning at ten o'clock, and disposed of the following cases:

Jones et als, vs Gallough et als, case argued. Papers handed up, judgment reserved.

W F Perry vs Green Johnson, jury empaneled. Pending the taking of testimony; court adjourned until today.

A number of cases were continued on the docket until the June term.

Supreme Court.

Court opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. All the justices were present.

The following cases were called and disposed of as follows:

Stenhouse & McCauley vs M L Davis, adm'r et als, from Mecklenburg; argued by A Burwell for the plaintiffs and J H Wilson for the defendants.

C C Durham vs Peter S Speeke, from Cleaveland; argued by W J Montgomery for the plaintiff, and Hoke & Son and A Burwell for the defendant.

John L Hall vs Martha Reynolds et als, from Montgomery; called and sit for hearing at the end of the district for absence of counsel.

James M Donald et al vs Cannon, Fetzer & Wadsworth, from Cabarrus; argued by W J Montgomery for the plaintiffs, and Wilson & Son for the defendants.

A R Nesbit & Bro vs J M Turrentine and wife, from Mecklenburg; called and sit for hearing at the end of the district.

Sever & Weld vs Jos McLaugh'in, from Mecklenburg; argued by A Burwell for the plaintiffs, and Wilson & Son for the defendant.

J M Hutchison vs H W Rumfeldt et al, from Gaston; to appeals; called and sit for hearing at the end of the district for absence of counsel.

State vs J W Baxter, from Cleaveland; argued by Att'y General Kenan for the State, J F Hoke & W P Bymun for the defendant.

Court adjourned until this (Tuesday) morning at 10 o'clock, when the considerations of appeals from the Sixth Judicial district will be resumed.

Decisions in the Supreme Court.

What a Pity

that the otherwise beautiful girl should have had such bad teeth. And all because she did not use SOZODONT. It costs so little to buy it considering the good it does, and its benefits stretch out into her future life. Poor girl!

The reason why adulterated baking powders make bread and biscuits very indigestible, is because they harden the gluten of the wheat and render it less soluble. The purity and perfect combination of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder makes all articles easy of digestion.

And Yet He is Not Happy.

An event that has recently stirred up Evansville, Ind., is stated in cold type of the local papers thus: "Good Luck !!! or two Evansvillians who bit the Louisiana State Lottery Grand Capital Prize at the 116th Grand Monthly (January 13th last) Drawing, after sending one dollar to M. A. Dauphin, at New Orleans, La., and who received $15,000." As they are named Albecker and Zapp, they probably are of the German persuasion, but there is a clog to every sweet. Albecker has "hit" the same lottery a score of times, all the way from $5 to $500, and the edge of appreciation is dulled.

Maud had a fine figure, good face and pretty name. One should see her at a distance. When she began to talk, you realized that she never used SOZODONT. Her breath was unlike the breezes of Araby the blest.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anamia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

THE NEW FRYER.

This useful invention meets a long-felt need for a more convenient method of removing Oysters, Potatoes, and other fried food, with greater quickness, and all at once, from the boiling fat in which they have been cooked, and allowing the fat to drain from them while they remain over the fire; thereby getting rid more certainly of the superfluous grease, the objection so often made of the unhealthiness of food cooked in the ordinary frying-pan is done away with.

By detaching the supporter, you have for omelettes and other things for which a drainer is not required, a deeper and better quality of frying-pan than has heretofore been made.

THE OVAL CAKE

is the most economical form of Washing Soap All bar or square cakes wear down in use to a large flat piece, too thin to handle and, therefore, wasted; while the OVAL CAKE of

COLGATE & CO'S

"NEW" SOAP can be cut in two, the oval end clasped readily in the hand, and the larger end worn down almost to a wafer without any waste. COLGATE & CO. recommend their

"NEW" SOAP

(Trade-Mark Registered) to Careful Housekeepers, not only as superior in quality, but as in form the most economical Soap now made.
